Summary:

Pinocchio lives in the Enchanted Village, between a mysterious forest and a shimmering lake. He has a merry band of friends and together they take on the adventures of his day-to-day life, just like kids all over the world do. But these kids are a little different, one is an ogress' daughter, another is the offspring of an elf, there's Sleeping Beauty's daughter, the son of Prince Charming and even the son of...the Big Bad Wolf! Suffice to say that with this colorful bunch, surprising, comedy adventures are guaranteed! In their day-to-day lives as kids, Pinocchio and his friends come up against timeless and universal themes such as the values of friendship, the love parents have for their children, fairness and justice, rejection of intolerance and exclusion, as such anchoring their childhoods in the everyday experience of children all over the world... but with a little extra pinch of magic and wonder!
